

Symposium on Monitoring Strategies for Marine Mammal Populations,
La Rochelle, France, 21-23 November 2008

10th Annual Seminar of CRMM Field Correspondents

PROVISIONAL PROGRAM

A simultaneous interpretation (French/English) will be available during the symposium

Friday, November 21st, 2008

9:00-10:00 Reception of participants and introduction

10:00-10:30 Coffee break

10:30-12:30 Society demand in monitoring marine mammal populations (introduced by Giuseppe Notarbartolo di Sciara followed by EU, ASCOBANS, ACCOBAMS, governmental representatives)

12:30-14:00 Lunch break

14:00-16:00 Converting the society demand into measurable parameters

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-18:30 Existing practices, part 1 (introduced by Vincent Ridoux)

20H30-22H30 Ice-breaker

Saturday, November 22nd, 2008

8:30-10:00 Existing practices, part 2

10:00-10:30 Coffee break
10:30-12:30 Existing practices, part 3
12:30-14:00 Lunch break
14:00-16:00 Indicators and their performance, part 1
16:00-16:30 Coffee break
16:30-18:30 Indicators and their performance, part 2

19:00-20:00 Public evening

20:00-23:00 Banquet

Sunday, November 23rd, 2008

8:30-10:00 Indicators and their performance, part 3
10:00-10:30 Coffee break
10:30-12:30 Examples of integrated monitoring strategies, part 1 (introduced by Aleta Hohn)
12:30-14:00 Lunch break
14:00-16:00 Examples of integrated monitoring strategies, part 2
16:00-16:30 Coffee break
16:30-18:30 Synthesis and recommendations for marine mammals (introduced/concluded by Mark Tasker)